DOG AND ANIMAL ISSUES

The City encourages citizens who have problems with dogs or other animals to contact their neighbor to try to get the issue resolved. If you are unable to get it resolved at that level, you may want to contact Linn County Sheriff's Office by calling 541-967-3907.

Here is some information from the Linn County Animal Control Website:

Licensing – Any dog six months of age or with permanent canine teeth which has been in your possession within Linn County for 30 days must be licensed (ORS 609.100).

It is unlawful for dogs to run at large in Linn County. Any Peace Officer or Animal Control Officer may impound a dog that is found running at large.

No dog owner or keeper of a dog shall permit a dog to chase, kill, wound, or injure livestock not belonging to the owner or keeper of such dog. The owner or keeper of a dog that has injured or killed livestock is responsible for the amount up to double the amount of damages. Any dog, whether licensed or not, which, while off premises owned or under the control of its owner, kills, wounds, or injures any livestock not belonging to the master of such a dog is a public nuisance and may be killed immediately by any person (ORS 609.150).

A dog is considered a public nuisance per ORS 609.095 if it:

Chases vehicles or people; Damages or destroys the property of others; Scatters garbage; Trespasses on private property; Disturbs any person by frequent or prolonged noise; Is a female in heat and is running at large .

Free Family Hazelnut Harvest!

Brush Farm, 32109 Tangent Drive (across from Tangent Community Church)

October 21 and October 28, 12 noon—5 pm

The Brush Farm's hazelnut trees are finally beginning to produce and we invite the Tangent community members to come gather nuts for free.

Bring a bag or bucket and your family (raincoats too, just in case!) to gather up to five gallons of hazelnuts per family. Drying and roasting instructions will be provided. We will be serving fresh-pressed apple cider; and our goats and horses are looking forward to being petted!

We hope to see you in October,

Mel and Juanita Brush
